

NACC Care Cook Competition 2011

Scottish Region

NACC Scottish Region Care Cook Off Competition winner Margaret Stewart competed in the Care Cook Final yesterday at the Unilever Headquarters in Leatherhead, Surrey. This Margaret's second year in a row competing in the competition, and again the only female competitor.

I am delighted to inform you Margaret Stewart was awarded 2nd Place. Her organisational skills, technical ability and her flavours were exceptional, her efforts were recognised and she was justly awarded with this accolade. Congratulations to her for her accomplishment.

Thank you to Karen Taylor, Manager of Methilhaven Home in Fife for your continuous support to the NACC. This extending to the commitment given to Margaret during the past few months and for accompanying her to the finals in London.

Thank you to Scomac, E & R Moffat, Gram and Falcon for sponsorship; West Lothian College for use of their facility for the Care Cook Off Competition; to judges Chef Lecturer Andy McDougall and International Chef Tony Singh; to HNC Photography student April Baillie for photographing this event and for your fabulous efforts on your work placement with the Scottish Region of the NACC and finally to all our members for your continuous support.

On behalf of the Scottish Region of the National Association of Care Catering, we wholeheartedly congratulate you Margaret, a truly wonderful achievement!!!!
