Purpose built venue with exclusive hire

The East Midlands Conference Centre is purpose built and is booked on an exclusive hire basis for the TDF event. There is a beautiful atrium area that allows us to create a free flowing, business networking and exhibition community for delegates around the main auditorium which ensures we keep everyone together in one exclusive area.

We asked delegates and exhibitors what they felt worked well for them at the 2016 event...

A great event with good programme and networking – Matthew White, Chair of TUCO

Setting and networking was very informed and relaxed. Great event, well organised and fabulous venue. Everyone so friendly! – Alison Pugh, Acacia Training & Development

Improved attendance from key decision makers across the care sector, coupled with more opportunities to discuss and network! – Gwaine Cook, Bidvest Foodservice

I felt it to be one of the best events so far. The networking dinner hit the right note - not too dark, and music not too loud enabling you to network as well as be entertained – Jane Parke, County Enterprise Foods

Accommodation in the beautiful new De Vere Orchard hotel*

Your accommodation during the event will be in a brand new De Vere Orchard hotel that has just been built and has a connecting walkway from the East Midlands Conference Centre.

This means that the quality and comfort of your stay will be first class, and the standard of food is excellent.

*Limited availability and a max of two per exhibiting company will be in the main hotel. Any others will be in the Jubilee Conference Centre.

FACT 100% OF DELEGATES RATED THE VENUE AS GOOD AND EXCELLENT

About the NACC

The National Association of Care Catering, known as the NACC, is recognised as a prime source of information and opinion on catering within the caring sector. Its membership has a significant influence on the provision of catering and equipment within the care catering industry and its members are constantly sourcing new products and services to improve their meal provision. NACC members comprise the biggest private care providers and local authorities in the UK and collectively control more than £1 billion of spend in the market.

The market

The UK care catering market is set to double its size by 2020 according to the forecast from the Office for National Statistics. Any industry dependent on our ageing population is going to experience a huge boom if it is to meet the increasing demands.

This means that the care market will grow rapidly in size and supplies of food, beverage and equipment will increase dramatically.

The care catering market includes any catering that may take place in residential homes for children, for the elderly or for people with disabilities. It may be meals served to groups in community and day care centres, or it may involve delivering individual, fresh or frozen meals to people's homes or luncheon clubs.

The care catering market encompasses:

- In excess of 19 million community meals being served across the UK per annum*
- 40,000 day Centres and Clinics*
- 30,000 Residential and Nursing
- Homes serving 597,000,000 meals every year!

*NACC membership research 2004

An extensive PR & marketing campaign

This will include:

- PR throughout the catering trade press
- E-mail – in excess of 50,000 delegate tickets emailed to decision makers and specifiers from:
  - Local Authorities
  - Private Care Homes
  - Residential Care Homes
  - Nursing Homes
  - Hospital Caterers
  - Charitable Care Organisations
  - Hospices
  - Extra Care Schemes
  - Not for Profit Care Providers
  - Day Care Centres
- A dedicated marketing campaign to attract day visitors to the exhibition
- Promotions to allied associations such as the Hospital Caterers Association (HCA), the Lead Association for Catering in Education (LACA)
- Social media including Twitter (@NACCCaterCare) and LinkedIn exposure

Dedicated event website

www.mcculloughmoore.co.uk/nacc

The NACC training & development forum and exhibition has a dedicated website that shows delegates and visitors all the information they need about the event.

In addition, it profiles the exhibitors who have booked with a short description about their products and services and a link to their website. When you book as an exhibitor your details will be added to this website so that when visitors and delegates look through the information they can find out more about your business prior to meeting you face to face.

A current exhibitor's list will also be included in all the delegate promotional emails so it's important your company books early to maximise your exposure opportunities.

We asked delegates and exhibitors what the highlight of the conference was for them...

A fantastic training forum – I think I would go as far as to say the best I have attended. I particularly liked the one-to-one meeting (meet the buyer) – Linda Davies, Monmouthshire County Council

The event was very well organised, relaxed, which was perfect for me, as I attended for the first time alone and knew absolutely no-one! But the combination of formal sessions and networking opportunities left me with improved knowledge and lots of contacts – Michelle Dewer, Community Dietician, Herts, Community Meals

Being able to meet the suppliers during the 'meet the buyer' session – Deborah Bramley, Head of Kitchen, Ashmere

I thoroughly enjoyed the workshops – Jamie Pattinson, Chef, Notaro Care Homes

The 'meet the buyer' session was a great way to communicate the needs of our service. This has been a fantastic event - thanks to all the organisers – Phil Pettitt, St Lukes

The range of suppliers/partners was excellent and many complimented a full process for implementation of new ideas and methods – Pamela Ghisi, Sue Ryder

This year the event offered something for everybody and covered a huge variety of topics. Plus, as ever it offered great networking opportunities – Pauline Batty, Monmouthshire County Council

The speed dating was great. I gathered lots of information and made contacts I may not have made otherwise. A* all round – Christine Hamilton, Four Seasons Health Care
